

- Do you have any musicians in your Company?
- Do they play valved brass instruments?
- Do you have any staff that want help teaching music?

If the answer to ANY of the above is YES, then this is for you!

After its previous highly successful training events, the BB National Brass Band Association is holding another

Band Training Weekend

RAF Northolt, Ruislip Middlesex
by kind permission of the Royal Air Force from

Friday 29th April to Monday 2nd May 2011
(Early May Bank Holiday weekend)

A weekend of music, fun and fellowship

Arrive Friday evening

Leave mid-afternoon on Monday

All meals provided by RAF Northolt with accommodation in local church halls

A team of experienced instructors will be on hand to give expert tuition

The music training bands will be graded according to players' abilities and additional sessions can be included, as required, on instructing young musicians, basic music arranging and conducting (participants will need some knowledge of reading music).

Will this be expensive? - No! - we hope this will be under £30 per person including all meals, training and accommodation
